

26. GAMES

Welcome song

K: Welcome to our fun learning radio broadcast with Kiki and Mr. Suits! This program was created in collaboration with Azyzah Educational and Interactive Theatre.

S: Nice to meet you friends!

K: Our question today is from Riley, who is 10 years old from Kitchener, Canada.

S: Hi, Kiki and Mr. Suits, could you tell us about games?

K: Yes! Ready to learn about games?

S: Let's go.

Theme

S: Games, games, I love games, games

K: Me too! . Let's play board games! I love scrabble, playing with letters and words. Fun!

S: Yeah, and you always win! Wait, I think I have a chess board . Tadaa! And all the pieces! Oh no! The white king and the black queen are missing!

K: So we can't play? What about checkers, the board is the same.

S: But we still need the special pieces, Kiki. . How about cards! I know like a million card games!

K: That would be great, Mr. Suits. But we lost our cards last month on tour. . Maybe we could play something with just pen and paper! Mm, Hangman?

S: Where we guess letters that make up words? Kiki, you always win at that one too. - What about tick-tack-toe?

K: OK, let's go! X!

S: O!

K: X!

S: O!

K: X!

S: O! Woo-hoo! I win, you lose!

K: Hm. Mr. Suits, I think I want to play a different game now.

S: But I like tick-tack-toe. OK, let's play rock-paper-scissors to decide!

K: Yes, let's go!

S+K: Rock, paper, scissors! Shoot!

K: Woo-hoo! I win, you lose! . We are playing Scrabble!

S: Ok

Story

S: Woo-hoo! It's story time

K: Today's story is about a boy who played a silly and dangerous game. Long ago, there lived a young shepherd who often got bored, tending his sheep alone. One day, he had an idea.

(S) BOY: I know how I can have some fun!

K: He ran down to the village and cried

(S) BOY: Wolf! Wolf! There's a wolf up on the mountain, I'm scared!

K: People ran out to meet him and offer comfort.

(K) VILLAGERS: Are you alright? Where is the wolf? How can we help?

(S) BOY: Oh, never mind. There is no wolf. But thank you, hahaha!

K: The villagers did not think it was funny. They went back to work, shaking their heads. A few days later, the boy got bored again

(S) BOY: Mm, I wonder if my new game will be even more fun a second time

K: Again, he went running to the village, crying

(S) BOY: Wolf, wolf!

K: The good villagers came to help him.

(S) BOY: Hahaha! I can't believe you fell for it twice. There is no wolf! Hahaha!

(K) VILLAGERS: This is not funny, one day you might actually need help. Please, stop playing silly games.

(S) BOY: Yes, I'm sorry. I won't do it again.

K: A few days passed. The boy was tending his sheep all alone when suddenly a big bad wolf came out from the forest. The boy saw him and was scared. He called out loud

(S) BOY: Wolf! Somebody help me please!

K: The villagers heard his cries but they thought

(K) VILLAGERS: He's just playing a silly game again. We will not fall for it this time.

K: The boy cried louder and louder

(S) BOY: Help! Help!

K: But no help came and the wolf ate his sheep. When he returned to the village, he asked

(S) BOY: Why didn't anyone help me?

(K) VILLAGERS: A liar will not be believed, even if he speaks the truth.

THE END
