

47. CLOCKS

Welcome song

K: Welcome to our fun learning radio broadcast with Kiki and Mr. Suits! This program was created in collaboration with Azyzah Educational and Interactive Theatre.

S: Nice to meet you friends!

K: Our question today is from Nina who is 12 years old from Most in the Czech Republic.

S: Hi Kiki and Mr. Suits, could you tell us about clocks?

K: Yes! Ready to learn about clocks?

S: Let's go!

Theme

S: Tick, tock, tick, tock, tick, tock.

K: Tick, tock, tick, tock, tick, tock.

S: The clock in our kitchen never stops tick-tocking. Tick, tock, tick, tock.

K: And once every hour a little birdie comes out. Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo! It tells us the time.

S: Kiki, why do we need clocks? Just look out of the window! The sun is up? Daytime! - The sun is down? Nighttime. Bam! Simple.

K: That is true, Mr. Suits. But sometimes we need to be on time for work or school. - And in some places the sun is up for months at a time.

S: What? What about the rest of the year?

K: Night. Pitch black.

S: Wowzers! Ok, so they definitely need a clock to tell the time. Go, go, go!

K: Time to get up and brush your teeth!

S: Wait, how do clocks work? I know they have two moving hands that point to the hour and minute.

K: That's right. But there are other clocks too. Digital clocks, for example.

S: Like the one I have on my phone. It's just numbers. And no cuckoo comes out to sing the time.

K: Haha! Imagine a little bird coming out of your phone every hour! Cuckoo, cuckoo - in your pocket!

S: Hahaha! . So, Kiki... What is the difference between a clock and a watch? They seem the same to me

K: A watch is a small clock that you can wear on your wrist.

S: Amazing. What time is it Kiki?

K: Time for lunch!

Story

S: Woo-hoo! It's story time

K: Today's story is about time and patience.

One day, a boy named Peter got money from his father to go to the market.

(S)FATHER: Son, buy your first watch. Make sure it works well.

K: Peter chose a beautiful watch. When he got home, he showed it to his family.

(K)PETER: Look at my beautiful watch. I love it!

(S)FATHER: Wait a minute. Look at it carefully.

(K)PETER: Huh? What?

(S)FATHER: There is only one hand, pointing straight up.

(K)PETER: The watch is broken.

(S)FATHER: Yes. Take it back to the shop.

K: Peter walked back to the market, sad. He loved his new watch. He looked at it one more time.

(K)PETER: Wait a minute. There are two hands now. Hahahahaha! I have to go home!

K: Peter ran home and showed the watch to his father again.

(K)PETER: Look, dad! The hands moved. It was just 12 o'clock before.

(S)FATHER: Hahahaha! Silly us! We should have just waited

(K)PETER: Yes. Anyway, it's 12:30 now, time for lunch.

(S)FATHER: Yes, let's eat. We are already late.
